Jeff Juel

IS PRESENTED THE AIR FORCE TEAM AWARD FOR CONSTRUCTION AGENT OF THE YEAR FY 1999

The Seattle District was the recipient of the Air Force Construction Agent of the Year for FY 1999. This great honor was earned through the hard work, dedication and resourcefulness of the construction project delivery team supporting the Fairchild, McChord, Mt. Home Resident Offices and the Malmstrom Project Office with quality assistance from Engineering, Contracting, Resource Management, Counsel and the remaining supporting players of the Seattle District. This team accomplished a tremendous volume of work with a high level of quality and customer satisfaction. Winning this award is a tribute to TEAM professionalism and tireless dedication to the customer. Jeff was the PM Forward for McChord as well as project manager for several McChord jobs. Jeff represented the Corps at Wing Commander updates providing status of construction activities and user requests pertinent to the changing needs of local leadership. Jeff actively participated in resolving hard construction issues and on numerous occasions would single handedly come up with the solutions. Juel is diligent and an extremely hard working individual and holds the customer's needs as his number one priority.
